

Hello Drivers: We want you to be aware that WRLS and the County of Monterey have negotiated an operating agreement that will ensure the safety of all. PLEASE READ these elements, and if you are curious to see the document, we can send it to you upon request.

These items are NON-NEGOTIABLE. The County of Monterey and WRLS are serious about these rules and held to these rules at the HOD event June 27-28. We observed that there were County representatives on site monitoring compliance.

Thank you so much for jumping on board as HOD and the world evolved out of the worst of the COVID era. Here are the key rules for WRLS, but not the only ones:

- Both the COVID waiver and the liability waiver must be signed in advance and submitted to HOD at TeriB@HookedOnDriving.com
- Participation is limited to ONE Driver, and ONE family member only per registered vehicle. Guest family members must be pre-registered with the following information: Full name, address, and phone number, submitted to TeriB@HookedOnDriving.com . Both driver and guest must arrive in the same vehicle.
- Masks must be brought with you and worn at all times when outside the car, even when social distancing. Social distancing at 6' will be required at all times.
- Only one person allowed in the vehicle while on track. No passengers on track.
- Temperatures will be taken at the gate – please do not come if you do not feel well.
- Paddock layout must have vehicles spaced 8' apart. HOD is tasked with providing a paddock map showing where participants are in the paddock. If you are wanting to park near someone, you will need to arrive at the same time.
- No more than six people will be allowed in one social distancing area.
- We will need the license plate number of the car you are driving into the paddock and the two waivers prior to the event.

We know these are trying times, and we will work with you to the best of our ability. Please feel free to reach out to me by either email or phone, I am happy to help you.

Thank you.
